Announcement

WITH much pleasure we invite all those who are interested in Shorthorn cattle to be with us at Maxwalton Farms on June ninth. The offering consists of a select group of bulls, nearly every one of them a fit candidate for top honors at this season's shows. The females are richly bred and those of breeding age are carrying the service of Maxwalton Pure Gold and Maxwalton Justright, two of the greatest sires ever used at Maxwalton. A great many of the females will likewise be ready for the 1937 show ring.

We do not wish to praise our own cattle beyond their real merit, but the type, quality and breeding of those offered in this sale are deserving of your time and interest. We feel that some of the best cattle that have ever been offered from Maxwalton are to be ready for your appraisal on sale date. They are the same quality and type as the ones retained in our herd. Our herd is healthy and a clean health certificate will be supplied that will enable the animal to comply with the health regulation of any state or herd.

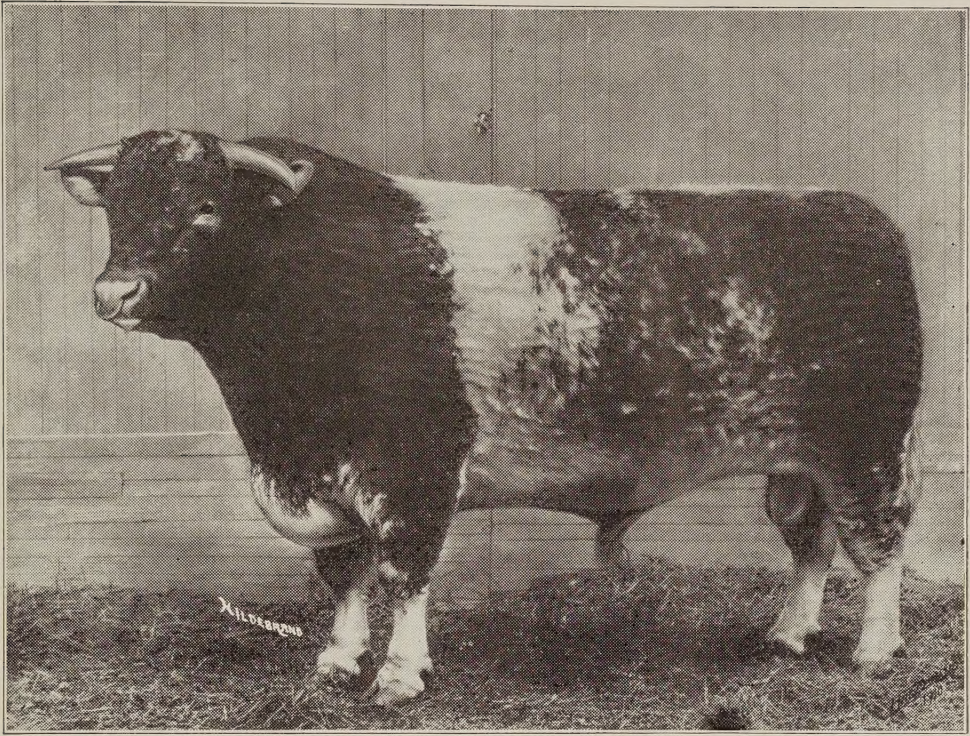

We cordially invite you to be with us on the day of our sale.

REVOLUTION 388359

These two noted sires, through their service at Maxwalton Farms, exerted a great influence on the Shorthorn breed.

Wherever Shorthorn cattle are known, the name "Maxwalton" means quality. Every breeder, from the largest down to the smallest, recognizes the prestige in this name because they know that for a quarter of a century superior individuality has gone along with each animal bearing it. Now comes the invitation to you who are reading this catalog to join in the appraisal of the 1937 offering. All that should be necessary to create a desire in YOU to own some of them, is the plain statement that these 41 beautiful individuals are sure to add further prestige to the name "MAX-WALTON."

Those who are anxious to add pedigree strength to their herds will take particular delight in a study of the catalog because it is filled with what may rightly be termed "perfect bloodlines." And, if these same men obey the impulse to attend the sale, they will find that the type, quality and conformation of each animal is exactly what should be expected from such rich ancestry. I was greatly pleased with every animal in this offering and if I were establishing a herd for myself, I would buy as many members of this 1937 Maxwalton offering as my funds would allow.—Hal Longley of The Shorthorn World.
